

retirement doesn't have to mean the end of your career.

ACSA's Interim Administrative Positions program can keep you in touch with temporary and part-time employment opportunities in California schools and districts.

The Interim Administrative Positions program is operated as a service both to you, as a retired school administrator, and to schools and districts seeking professional help on a temporary or part-time basis.

ACSA matches requests from schools or districts with the names, qualifications and geographic locations of retirees. Contracts for employment are then negotiated directly between the retiree and the institution.

If you would like to be part of ACSA's Interim Administrative Positions program, just complete the form on the reverse side of this panel and return it to ACSA. Available only to Emeritus and Full Regular Retired Members.

“Continue to be a strong voice in support of public education...”

says Robert Lee, past Chair of ACSA's Retirement Committee. “As a retired member, you will be kept abreast of the latest issues in education via ACSA publications and you can lend your experience and expertise to colleagues in the field.”

emeritus members

ACSA's Board of Directors has developed a lifetime membership category to honor you, the retired administrator. As an Emeritus Member, you:

- Continue to receive ACSA publications including the EdCal weekly newspaper and Leadership magazine
- May enroll in ACSA's Interim Administrator Positions Program
- May serve on region and charter committees, on the State Retirement Committee, and other committees with the approval of the State Board of Directors.

In addition, Emeritus Members receive the following enhanced benefits:

- A special ACSA-branded item denoting Emeritus status
- Free Leadership Summit Registration (this year in San Diego)
- Two free tickets to the family entertainment attraction of your choice, i.e., Knott's Berry Farm, San Diego Zoo
- Get connected to other educational leaders across the state through ACSA's new online community at: community.acsa.org stay connected and make the most of your membership!

As well seasoned administrators, ACSA's retired community are an extremely valued resource. Your involvement can help shape legislation for currently retired administrators and for all those retiring in the future. ACSA's Retirement Committee is the vehicle for which your specific issues can be heard. Their purpose is:

- To provide leadership, direction, clarification, and understanding of the State Teachers' and Public Employees' Retirement Systems to all ACSA members.
- To plan, provide, and encourage in-service training for administrators in the area of retirement.
- To investigate and to promote legislation that positively impacts or affects members of both systems.
- To encourage the continued participation, involvement, and service of retired ACSA members in the cause of improving education and enhancing community service in California.

If you wish to learn more about the Retirement Committee's activities, please contact the Committee Chair listed below.
