ACSA is a private, professional association and, as such, reserves the right to limit participation in any of its programs or activities. ACSA does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin, disability or age. However, it is the policy of ACSA to limit participation in its conferences to administrators, other individuals associated with public agencies, and others who are not representing parties with interests adverse to school districts, as determined by ACSA in its sole discretion. Whenever ACSA determines that participation would exceed its limitations, it may deny or cancel a registration for any program or activity.

The ACSA Every Child Counts Symposium endeavors to provide reasonable accommodations to persons who require other accommodations as provided for by the American With Disabilities Act. Please notify Sue Periera at least thirty (30) days in advance of the conference at speriera@acsa.org if you have ADA needs so we can endeavor to make reasonable accommodation to accommodate a specific need. Therefore, please understand that arranging accommodations may take substantial time and may or may not be available depending on the nature of the request. Providing less than thirty (30) days notice may not allow sufficient time to make accommodations, depending on the nature of the request. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
