

2017 awards overview

Each year, ACSA recognizes a select group of individuals for their significant contributions to education through three prestigious awards named in memory of past ACSA leaders:

- Ferd. Kiesel Distinguished Service Award
- Marcus Foster Memorial Award
- Robert E. Kelly Award

In addition, members are honored for outstanding performance and achievement as Administrators of the Year in various job-alike categories.

The Valuing Diversity Award is given to the member whose efforts to promote diversity epitomize ACSA's mission statement.

Programs and businesses that collaborate with administrators in support of education are also recognized through the Partners in Educational Excellence Award.

Students of all grade levels are recognized through the Every Student Succeeding Program, designed to honor students who have succeeded against all odds.

Awards will be presented at ACSA's Leadership Summit next year in San Jose, November 2-4, 2017.

Important!

The deadline for submission of nominations to state ACSA will be February 6, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. Nominations received by state ACSA after the deadline may not be considered eligible.

The Ferd. Kiesel and Marcus Foster award nominations may be sent directly to ACSA; all other awards must first be submitted to your region president or designee (contact region president for deadline—visit www.acsa.org/regions to find region websites).

Every Student Succeeding

Purpose. The purpose of this award is to honor students at all grade levels who have succeeded, against all odds, beyond expectations or simply won the hearts of the administrators and other educators who helped them achieve their goals. One student from each region will be honored.

Eligibility. The success of these students should be tied to the work of ACSA administrators. We know that other educators will also have made significant contributions to their support, including board members, teachers, guardians, community members, etc.

Nominees should be students who have made a special effort to succeed and have overcome obstacles such as:

- Returning to school
- Leaving a gang
- Improving their attendance
- Changing their attitude
- Overcoming physical and mental barriers

They should also be active in:

- After school programs
- Community service
- Student conflict resolution
- Cross-age tutoring
- Peer mediation
- Peer tutoring

Nominees can come from programs such as:

- Alternative Education
- At-risk
- Bilingual
- Continuation School

Nomination Process. Nominations must be sent directly to the nominee's region. Each region will select one student recipient and honor them at region events throughout the year. Nomination forms are available for download on the ACSA web site at www.acsa.org/ess.

Students will be honored at ACSA's Leadership Summit in November, as well as at various regional events.

Deadline. Contact your region president for the region deadline. Deadline for submission of recipient information to state ACSA by region presidents is in March 3, 2017.
