

CO-ADMINISTRATOR'S INSTITUTE

november 12, 2016 ■ hilton bayfront san diego

SPONSORED BY ACSA'S CO-ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE, THE CO-ADMINISTRATORS INSTITUTE

is designed to build leadership capacity within our school systems. Co-administrators, vice principals, assistant principals and teacher leaders support effective learning environments for students throughout California. They are a critical component of effective teaching and learning, this event addresses their unique needs and brings attention to their crucial role in public education.

The institute not only provides rich content learning focused on the hot topics facing co-administrators today, it also provides a venue for valuable networking and collaboration. In addition, it provides valuable information for co-administrators as they prepare for their journey up the career ladder. This day is the beginning of what promises to be an outstanding year!

OVERVIEW OF SESSIONS

SESSION 1: 10:30 – 11:25 A.M.

Multi-tiered Approach to Student Discipline

Maria Hwang de Bravo, Student Support Services Solutions, Inc.

In recent years, there has been a united effort from the Federal, state and local level to improve school climate and school discipline. The focus has been for staff to pay closer attention to and address the social, emotional, and behavioral needs of all students, rather than on the use of exclusionary discipline. It is with proper implementation of student discipline procedures that a positive school climate and culture can be achieved. This workshop will discuss how district policy and a multi-tiered discipline approach can guide decisions on how to appropriately respond to student behaviors.

SESSION 2: 11:30 A.M. – 1:25 P.M.

Lunch/Panel Discussion

Lou Obermeyer, retired superintendent

Lou will be joined by a panel of superintendents and principals to facilitate conversations for career advancement, leadership development, making wise decisions, and other important topics to help you excel in your position.

SESSION 3: 1:30 – 2:25 P.M.

Proactive Evaluations – Planning for Success

*Brian Bock, partner; Marina Ramirez, associate, Fagen
Friedman & Fulfrost*

Too often heavy workloads and human nature combine to push evaluations to the bottom of administrators' priority lists. The price can be steep, however, when performance doesn't measure up, costing precious time and sometimes money to address. This experienced legal team will explain how to develop plans and skills for effective evaluations, including creating timelines, setting attainable goals, and providing constructive, thoughtful feedback. They will discuss best practices and legally compliant procedures for supervising and evaluating employees.

SESSION 4: 2:30 – 3:30 P.M.

Intentional and Targeted Teaching

Doug Fisher

The Framework for Intentional and Targeted Teaching®—or FIT Teaching®—is a research-based, field-tested, and experience-honed process that captures the essentials of the best educational environments. In contrast to restrictive pedagogical prescriptions or formulas, FIT Teaching empowers teachers to adapt the most effective planning, instructional, and assessment practices to their particular context in order to move their students' learning from where it is now to where it should be. In this session, we focus on the role of school leaders in encouraging teachers to consider the components of FIT Teaching, coaching teachers using the self-assessment tools, and leading teachers to increase their impact on students' learning..
