Partner4Purpose

ACSA's Partner4Purpose program (P4P) connects members to vetted, trustworthy school solution providers who offer thoughtful, contemporary and time-saving products and services. Best of all, these partners' subject-matter expertise often lies in the areas where school leaders could use the most assistance – technology, Common Core implementation, facilities, sustainability, safe and secure schools and financial services – to name a few. With P4P, we're making it a cinch to find real-world answers to real school problems. Contact us today at www.acsa.org to learn more about the benefits of these partnerships.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

Your leadership of California's public schools is a critical ingredient in assuring educational quality and success for all students. The Association of California School Administrators can help you stay informed about key issues facing our schools and stay connected to a network of educators. Educational Institution service provides timely periodicals that keep you up on the latest trends and issues in education. Our professional development programs offer training that will enhance your team-building and leadership skills. Please give our Member Services Department a call if you would like further information about any of the services outlined in this brochure.

FOR SCHOOL BOARD
MEMBERS, DISTRICTS
AND COUNTY OFFICES

2018-2019

PARTICIPATION IN ACSA EDUCATIONAL SERVICES PROVIDES:

DISTRICT BENEFITS

- ACSA professional staff assistance during work stoppage
- Team building for board/superintendent relations*
- Sample contracts and guidelines
- Additional services: personnel office audits, desk audits, public relations audits, facility planning and strategic planning*
- Professional development events for classified school administrators/managers

*Available at a reduced member rate.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER BENEFITS

Includes all members of a five to nine member board:

- ACSA Alerts, timely e-mail updates on state and federal public budget issues as they impact K-12 education from a school management perspective.
- Subscriptions to ACSA publications: EdCal – ACSA’s weekly newspaper, which includes legislative updates and the ACSA CareerConnect. Leadership – ACSA’s professional journal.
- Member registration rates at ACSA’s Leadership Summit and all ACSA Professional Learning Programs.*

Non-member registration fees are approximately double the members rate. A 10,000 ADA district could save enough to pay for its Educational Institution Service, when one board member attends an ACSA Professional Development Program.

ACSA PROFESSIONAL LEARNING PROGRAMS:

ACSA Educational Services believes student success in education begins with strong leadership. We support the growth and development of strong leaders by providing premier professional development programs and powerful networking opportunities. Please visit www.acsa.org/educational-services for the latest professional learning opportunities.

ACSA’s Leadership Summit

ACSA’s Leadership Summit is ACSA’s premier professional development event. This annual gathering of educators at all levels of administration, including school board members is a celebration of the profession. The Leadership Summit provides opportunities for invaluable networking and offers professional development on current critical leadership and educational issues.

Credential Program

ACSA is committed to providing exemplary credential services throughout the state. For teacher leaders interested in earning a Preliminary Administrative Services Credential, or new to administration and needing to clear their credentials, ACSA works with program partners and CTC to ensure quality administrative preparation and support throughout the education leadership journey.

Annual Conferences

Each year, conferences are held for specific positions including leaders in Human Resources, Special Education, Negotiations, and Adult Education as well as for Superintendents and classified employees.

Summer Program for Principals

Residential programs at UCLA provide an opportunity for administrators to meet in a stimulating and supportive setting for a week-long, in-depth professional learning opportunity. The Institutes are designed to provide participants with a unique experience to learn from educational experts, collaborate with their peers and engage in reflection on their leadership skills, knowledge and vision.

Career Academies

ACSA provides a full range of academies to meet the needs of school administrators, confidential employees or classified managers. Academies are currently offered in the following areas: Classified Educational Leaders, Curriculum & Instructional Leaders, Equity Leaders, Innovative Technology, Leading Continuous Improvement through the LCAP, Personnel Administrators, Principals, Pupil Services, School Business, Special Education, Superintendents, and English Language Learners.

Workshops and Trainings

Held throughout the year, these single or multi-day events are based on current issues and provide educational leaders with the information they need. Pre-scheduled or scheduled by request, Educational Services staff can bring the trainings to you.
