2019 2020 Retired Membership Application

association of california school administrators

"Continue to be a strong voice in support of public education..."

says Robert Lee, past Chair of ACSA's Retirement Committee. "As a retired member, you will be kept abreast of the latest issues in education via ACSA publications and you can lend your experience and expertise to colleagues in the field."

emeritus members

ACSA's Board of Directors has developed a lifetime membership category to honor you, the retired administrator. As an Emeritus Member, you:

- Continue to receive ACSA publications including the EdCal weekly newspaper and Leadership magazine
- Will be notified of all interim administrator positions
- May serve on the State Retirement Committee
- Continue to participate in ACSA insurance and discount benefits

In addition, Emeritus Members receive the following enhanced benefits:

- A special ACSA-branded item denoting Emeritus status
- Free Leadership Summit Registration
- Get connected to educational leaders across the state through ACSA's myriad social media offerings or visit us at www.acsa.org

Full regular retired members

Continue to receive ACSA publications; may register for the Annual Leadership Summit at a discounted rate; may serve on the State Retirement Committee; will be notified of all interim administrator positions; continue to participate in ACSA insurance and discount benefits.

Stay connected and make the most of your membership!

As well-seasoned administrators, ACSA's retired community are an extremely valued resource. Your involvement can help shape legislation for currently retired administrators and for all those retiring in the future. ACSA's Retirement Committee is the vehicle for which your specific issues can be heard. Their purpose is:

- To provide leadership, direction, clarification, and understanding of the State Teachers' and Public Employees' Retirement Systems to all ACSA members.
- To plan, provide, and encourage in-service training for administrators in the area of retirement.
- To investigate and to promote legislation that positively impacts or affects members of both systems.
- To encourage the continued participation, involvement, and service of retired ACSA members in the cause of improving education and enhancing community service in California.

If you wish to learn more about the Retirement Committee's activities, please contact the Committee Chair
